Beauty Is Skin Deep

PLASTIC SURGEON Jeanette Martello launched Skin Deep magazine at Bruno Jamais Restaurant.

"Skin Deep will educate the public in an unbiased fashion regarding plastic surgery, skin care, beauty, fitness, style, anti-aging, health, medicine and all image related issues," Dr. Martello said.

Guests at the launch party included Court TV host Lynne White of Hollywood Heat, supermodel Carol Alt, recording artist Samantha Cole, and Apprentice star Kwame Jackson.

"Women and men are concentrating more on being healthy and looking good," White said. "People are living longer lives and want them to be quality years."

It has been said that beauty is skin deep. Do you believe that?

"Yes, I believe true beauty comes from within," said White, "however there's nothing wrong in enhancing ones looks."
