

NEW YORK'S MOST ELIGIBLE ZILLIONNAIRES

New York City's Elite

Hello Darlings, Welcome back to Cognac's Corner. Dressed in a porcupine fur ensemble created by my Stylist Count Vlad of Vladicouture I decided to take a break from Fashion Week and make a celebrity appearance at Bruno Jamais's Restaurant one of my favorite trendy elegant hot spots in Manhattan. My dear friend Katherine Rothman, CEO of KMR Public Relations invited me to this cocktail soiree and exciting event at Bruno's Restaurant.

Restaurant presented by Entrepreneur Janis Spindel CEO of Janis Spindel Matchmaking Service and Jeremy Abelson who is the CEO of Pocket Change.

This very controversial event introduced the city's most eligible zillionnaires to Manhattan's glamorous hot babes. During my in depth interview, sophisticated Janis Spindel revealed that she supplied New York City's elite in femme fatales and Jeremy Abelson from Pocket Change qualified the zillionnaires.

Janis explained that she had to narrow down quite an extensive list of one thousand fabulous women to forty qualified sexy, brainy beauties through her matching company, Janis Spindel Matchmaking Service. CEO Jeremy Abelson revealed that his company Pocket Change decided to honor the age old union of wealthy men and hot girls. We as a society have not changed much in our mode of conscience awareness between the sexes. Society has taught us to not publicly acknowledge the obvious - no longer dear friends. Women want money in a man, men want beauty in a woman - this is a factual force of nature. Women don't ask "So, what does he do for a living?" because they're interested in his personality and guys don't ask "is she hot?" because they're concerned with character. Guys know that money buys them the car, the house and the trophy wife. This genetic cleansing is how the wealthy stay beautiful.

Pocket Change allows us to present the city's most expensive goods and services for every multi-millionaire on your list. As you will find, there are a multitude of sumptuous experiences available and we do our best to present them with the poise and posture they command. You, on the other hand, are welcome to snicker and slap your forehead all you like, but to us this is serious business. The two things we never joke about are money and money. Everything (and everyone) else is fair game. New Yorkers supply the eccentric environment that allows the items on our lists to exist and subsist. They drink the drinks, eat the eats and subsequently try to get someone else to pay for them. What's not to heart?

Pocket Change is a First Class cabin journey into the depths of decadence. With your flask-wielding captain Richard Nouveau at the helm rest assured you will be comfortable. Sink into the Ostrich leather of our prose. Nothing is out of bounds. Except, of course, anything outer borough. Join us will you, venture onto the seas of opulence and surface with troves of pretty, shiny things sure to distract you from the sobering constricts of habitual existence.
