

NEW YORK

March 31, 2005

SEND TO A FRIEND

The Weekend Guide

We got hoaxes and we got jokes-es. And some serious wallet damage. Yo, it's April, fool.

DO

Gallery Hop

What: Ten galleries. One big-ass showing. Lots of pie and soul food.

Why: DUMBO. So much more than overpriced lofts and Barnum refugees.

When: Thurs. 6 p.m.-8 p.m.

Where: DUMBO Gallery, 111 Front St., at Washington St. (718-222-2505).

BUY

Tupli Sample Sale

What: Custom shoes, were $600, now $300; boots, were $1,200, now $600.

Why: Who's the boss of 50 percent off?

When: Sat. 11 a.m.-6 p.m.

Where: 780 Madison Ave., b/t 66th and 67th Sts., Ste. 2C (212-472-2576).

Amy Chan Store Closing Sale

What: Up to 90 (no, not a typo) percent off Grey Ant, Issho, Alice & Trixie, Eugenia Kim, and more.

Why: We'll miss you, Amy. Even if our credit card statements won't.

When: Fri.-Sat. noon-7 p.m., Sun. noon-5 p.m.

Where: 247 Mulberry St., b/t Prince and Spring Sts. (212-966-3417).

EAT

Trunk 'n' Brunch

What: New boutique/restaurant lets you shop as you dine. Or vice versa.

Why: Nothing beats stuffing your face then trying on pants.

When: Sun. 11 a.m.-4 p.m.

Where: Plate NYC, 265 Elizabeth St., b/t Houston and Prince Sts. (212-219-9212).

NYC's New BBQ of Champions

What: Brisket, deep-fried ribs, pastrami, duck, and jumbo beers.

Why: Arteries? What are those?

When: Opening Fri. & Sat. 5 p.m.-11 p.m.

Where: R.U.B.BQ, 208 W. 23rd St., b/t Seventh and Eighth Aves. (212-524-4300).

SIGN UP FOR DAILY CANDY

ADD TO MY ARCHIVE

SEND TO A FRIEND