

May 17, 2005

Best in Shoe

If the shoe fits. Buy it.

Doesn't every bride deserve a fabulous shoe? Discover Tupli a new custom couture shoe atelier on Madison Avenue. We knew the shoes had to be special as designers like Catherine Malandrino and Monique Lhullier are featuring them on the runway this Thursday in a show to benefit Operation Smile.

A glimpse of their designs certainly made us smile. The design team of Kathy Myczkowski and Tamara Chubinidze bring their inspiration from the intimate salon houses of Europe. They utilize the most beautiful imported materials such as, diamonds, beads, leather, suede, satin, color swatches, and anything else your feet desire. Tupli has a singular mission, to encourage your feet to have their own identity.

By appointment only, you can come in, sit with the creative designer and illustrator and create your own one-of-a-kind shoe. Each shoe is molded to your feet to assure the best fit and the turnaround time is only 3 to 4 weeks. The shoes can be created for all occasions; but what occasion is more deserving than your wedding? Sure, they don't come cheap, but seriously they are within reach with price points starting at $600.

Style and comfort? What a perfect pair. And when you consider your overall wedding budget, it just might fit.

On the Spot:

Appointment only.
780 Madison Avenue, Suite 2C
(212) 472-2576

Online:

www.tupli.com

More on Operation Smile and The Smile Collection Couture Show:

Thursday, May 19th
Waterfront NY
224 12th Avenue
212-715-1566

OperationSmile.org