

David Patrick Columbia's NEW YORK SOCIAL DIARY

Last week Katherine M. Rothman and KMR Communications, Inc launched a new magazine, Skin Deep at a party at Bruno Jamais Restaurant Club at 24 East 81st Street between Madison and Fifth and hosted by supermodel Carol Alt and NBC Apprentice star, Kwame Jackson, along with Mr. Jamais.

Suzanne Somers graces the premier issue of the magazine. Carol Alt is seen within the magazine, and Susan Lucci will appear as the spring cover. The objective of Skin Deep is to educate the public regarding plastic surgery, skin care, anti-aging, health, medicine.

Alt signed her new diet/lifestyle book, Eating in the Raw: A Beginner's Guide to Getting Slimmer, Feeling Healthier, and Looking Younger the Raw-Food Way.

You needed all that just to be able to carry the Goody-bag out of the place — weighing in at 20 pounds and containing items from gift certificates, vodka, hair appliances, cosmetics, skincare products and fragrances.

Among the guests: Court TV Hollywood Heat Anchor Lynne White, Samantha Cole recording artist who graced Playboy Magazine's November issue as “babe of the month,” WNBC’s Dr. Max Gomez, Michel Bittan, Karmine Alers, Page Six’s Richard Johnson and Sessa Von Richtofen, Englewood, NJ Mayor Michael Wildes, Jean Madar, Chairman of the Board Inter Parfums Inc., and Florence Anthony, the author of the best-selling novel, Keeping Secrets, Telling Lies.
