Pink Ribbon Shoes - US

As you all (should) know, October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, so you should all be wearing your pink ribbons, pins or wristbands. But don't stop there. You can also buy shoes for charity!

LoveMyShoes.com are donating 20% of the sales of these pink Keds 'Champion' sneakers ($24.98) to the cause. You can also give QVC a visit and taking a look at the FFANY Shoes On Sale event, supported by the Desperate Housewives cast. They've got a pink 'shoe of the day' throughout the month.
