

Skin Deep Launch Party

The art of aging gracefully is captured on the pages of Skin Deep Magazine, a publication dedicated to educating readers on plastic surgery and dermatological procedures. Skin Deep hosted a classy launch party on the upper East Side at Bruno Jamais Restaurant. Celebrities, socialites and supermodels were dazzling and dressed to impress.

Covergirl/supermodel Carol Alt was the star of the evening, wearing an ultra elegant black dress and sparkling diamond necklace. Alt was signing her USA Today best-selling book Eating in the Raw.

No night would be complete without a hefty gift bag filled with items from Conair, 201 Supper Club, Jane Iredale Mineral Makeup, Mezzaluna Vodka and many more. It was a splendid affair of mixing and mingling, the epitome of a Manhattan socialite's haven.
