Bruno Jamais Restaurant Celebrates an Exhibition of Famed French Artists Cyrille Margarit

Hello darlings, welcome back to Cognac's Corner Magazine

New York Socialites attended an evening of Art at Bruno Jamais Restaurant for the exclusive New York Exhibition of the works of famed French Artist Cyrille Margarit on Monday April 23, 2007.

As we all enjoyed an evening of cocktails, champagne and hor d'ourves I had a chance to interview this sexy artist. We sat in an elegant plush banquette in a cozy corner in Bruno's below some of his famous artwork drinking Champagne as he revealed his special technique of showcasing digital images projected onto sheets of brushed aluminum. Mr. Margarit jetsets around the world from the dangerous jungles of Africa to the glamorous cities of Europe to the fashionable Cannes Film Festival photographing amazing images of celebrities and landscapes. Mr. Margarit's Celebrity clients have included Ivana Trump, Russell Simmons and Bruce Willis. I asked "What was it like to work with Ivana Trump". "She commissioned me to photograph her yacht and she was really sweet" he fondly remembered. This candid passionate artist discussed in length his love of photography, art, American culture and his profound love for the American woman's sophistication. He especially enjoyed working with prize fighter Mike Tyson and mentioned his love of photographing the heavy weight champ. During our interview I asked Cyril who were some of his favorite subjects and he revealed that he adored photographing Madonna. "She possesses amazing energy which was incredible to capture on film," he expressed. From her illustrious recording artist career, to her motion picture career, to her foray into the publishing industry, Madonna has done it all, seen it all. She truly is an amazing American woman.
