

BRUNO JAMAIS RESTAURANT CLUB HOSTED THE EXCLUSIVE NYC EXHIBITION OF ARTIST CYRILLE MARGARIT

The VueScene

On Monday April 23rd, Bruno Jamais Restaurant Club hosted the exclusive New York City Exhibition of famed French Artist Cyrille Margarit.

Approximately 200 members of the media viewed the exhibit and enjoyed gourmet fare and cocktails at this very exclusive and chic upper east side venue. Members of the media included The New York Observer, 201 Magazine, PBS Television, Black Tie International Magazine, US Weekly, Harper's Bazaar, Womens Wear Daily, and People Magazine to name but a few. Manhattan Cablevision Host Cognac Wellerlane of "Cognac's Corner" was on hand to interview artist Cyrille Margarit as he revealed his special technique of showcasing digital images projected onto sheets of brushed aluminum. Mr. Margarit jetsets around the world from the dangerous jungles of Africa to the glamorous cities of Europe to the fashionable Cannes Film Festival photographing amazing images of celebrities and landscapes. Mr. Margarit's Celebrity clients have included Ivana Trump, Russell Simmons and Bruce Willis. Cognac Wellerlane asked Mr. Margarit, "What was it like to work with Ivana Trump". "She commissioned me to photograph her yacht and she was really sweet" he fondly remembered. This candid passionate artist discussed in length his love of photography, art, American culture and his profound love for the American woman's sophistication. He especially enjoyed working with prize fighter Mike Tyson and mentioned his love of photographing the heavy weight champ. Ms. Wellerlane asked Cyrille who were some of his favorite subjects and he revealed that he adored photographing Madonna. "She possesses amazing energy which was incredible to capture on film," he expressed. From her illustrious recording artist career, to her motion picture career, to her foray into the publishing industry, Madonna has done it all, seen it all. She truly is an amazing American woman.
