Bruno Jamais is the quintessential French restaurateur with suave good looks, charming accent and debonair demeanor. Prior to opening Bruno Jamais Restaurant and Club in 2002, the 46-year-old Parisian born Jamais was an important fixture in the culinary world as the Maitre D at Restaurant Daniel. He is indebted to world-renowned Chef Daniel Boulud for not only teaching him English, but also giving him the opportunity to preside over one of the country's finest venues for classic French cuisine. While at Daniel, he catered to patrons that included world leaders, society matrons, and A-list celebrities. Jamais was inspired to combine a first class restaurant with a nightclub during his time at Daniel when regular customers would inquire where they could go to drink and dance without leaving the Upper East Side. Bruno sought to model the ambiance of his restaurant after those in the South of France that effortlessly combine fine food with a sexy, glamorous and fun environment. Bruno spent a lifetime envisioning his dream restaurant. "I always had an idea of what I wanted. This is the kind of place I would go for a fun night out." There is no admission to view the exhibit when dining at Bruno Jamais. For dinner reservations please call (212) 396-3444
