FOR FASHIONISTAS WHO CAN SPLURGE BUT PREFER TO “STEAL...” WELCOME TO HANDBAG HEAVEN!

Introducing www.baghaus.com : Designer Inspired Handbags Available Online

Do you covet that red carpet clutch sported by Jessica Alba or Kate Moss' latest evening tote? The newest “It” bags are selling for excessive prices and with so many to choose from one might have to take a second mortgage to afford four seasons worth. For those fashion obsessed ladies who want in-season and on-trend bags without having to break the bank, Baghaus has the answer. Baghaus.com (pronounced Bag House) is the ultimate one-stop destination that can fulfill your handbag fantasies. Whether you're seeking styles that are elegant, trendy, classic, or the celebrity must-have “It” bags currently spotted on the arms of Hollywood A-listers, you've come to the right place.

There is a reason why designer handbags are one the most sought after fashion accessories: they symbolize extravagance, luxury and can instantly transform the look of any outfit. Unfortunately, prices have crept up as the average shopper wants more cachet from their handbag. Price tags in exclusive boutiques and upscale department stores run into the hundreds - and quite often, thousands - of dollars, placing them financially out of reach for most shoppers. If designer handbags weren't so expensive, what would you do? Would you buy that trendy handbag that you saw on the arm of your favorite celebrity fashion icon? Perhaps you would expand your accessorizing options by purchasing handbags in several colors and styles. If only they weren't so expensive.... At Baghaus.com, designer inspired handbags provide an affordable solution for the fashionably budget conscious consumer. Baghaus.com does not compromise quality or style for a lower price.

www.baghaus.com provides fashion forward women with handbags inspired by over 30 of today's legendary and top designers such as Chanel, Marc Jacobs, Michael Kors, YSL, Valentino, Marc Jacobs, Rafe, Jimmy Choo, Hermes, Gucci, Fendi, Versace, Balenciaga, Coach, Christian Dior and virtually every other designer a “handbag hunter” would want. Whether your style is Boho chic, classic or contemporary, Baghaus has a handbag to suit your changing tastes. From evening bags, clutches, totes, hobos, and oversized bags, Baghaus offers all sizes, shapes, fabrics, and textures. At www.baghaus.com, you can shop “till” you drop. Average price points are approximately $50.00 and no bag is listed at more than $100.00. If this is not enough to satisfy avid bargain seekers, the site has a 60% off section where the latest styles can be purchased for as little as $35.00!

Shopping at Baghaus is a guilty but completely legal pleasure. Not to be confused with knock-offs or fakes that blatantly try to pass themselves off as the genuine article, their designer inspired handbags do not violate any copyright laws. "Inspired" simply means that the company integrates the beautiful elements of designer handbags - elegant structure, excellent craftsmanship, high-quality materials, and appealing details - into their own less expensive handbags.

Instead of having to choose one “It” bag per season or per year, Baghaus let's you splurge and make all of your designer dreams come true. Through the Baghaus' secured Web site, customers can return or exchange any unused items for 30 days (with the exception of clearance and final sale items) from the date of shipment. All items must be in brand new condition with all hang tags attached and in the original box and packaging. For ladies who can't wait to receive their new purchase, there is the option of overnight shipping.
